

The legal system is complex and can be very intimidating. Consultations with lawyers in our clinic give women the necessary support and encouragement to move forward with their legal proceedings. The Legal Clinic is offered to clients of the Centre giving them the opportunity to clarify:

- where to start
- information about their legal situation
- their legal rights
- the legal process