

Educational programs organized by Auberge Shalom pour femmes include:

- lectures;
- conferences and seminars for the community at large as well as for professionals working with women, families, and children (e.g., social workers, educators, medical professionals, police, religious community representatives);
- discussion groups for adolescents at schools and summer camps;
- talks and information sessions aimed at smaller community organizations, social clubs and groups, university and CEGEP classes.